History and Background

Reunion Health and Rocky Mountain HMO (collectively known as the Reunion Health partnership) have elected to participate in the Colorado Medicaid Accountable Care Collaborative as the Region 1 Regional Accountable Entity (RAE). Integrated Community Care Teams (ICCTs) in Northwest CO are a critical component of the Reunion Health partnership's approach, which honors local intelligence and leadership to drive community-level vision and innovation aimed at improving the health and well-being of all community members served by Medicaid.

The Grand County Rural Health Network contracts with the Northwest Colorado Community Health Partnership to implement the ICCT in Grand and Jackson Counties.

The Northwest Colorado ICCT builds capacity and infrastructure in the Health Neighborhood by providing care transition services, care coordination, and complex case management. ICCTs are typically housed within an Anchor Organization (Grand County Rural Health Network), which will provide the infrastructure for the ICCT staff, including a supervisor and human resources support for the team; management of payroll, benefits and compensation; access to HIPAA-secure electronic devices like computers, laptops, tablets or mobile phones; work space (if needed); compensation for mileage and other necessary and usual infrastructure supports.

ICCTs are multi-disciplinary and can be comprised of nurses, licensed behavioral health professionals, Certified Addiction Counselors (CAC), social workers, and highly trained and experienced non-credentialed professionals that serve as community health workers. Care coordinators meet with Members in safe locations, like homes, homeless shelters, hospitals, and other public meeting places, or via a telehealth tool, available to all ICCT staff.
